

“John delivered an inspiring keynote at our Entrepreneur of the Year event. He was spontaneous and dynamic in pitching his session at just the right level for our audience of entrepreneurs. I am sure that those present picked up on his passion for the topic of leadership trust and left with new thinking and renewed commitment to step up to the trust-building challenge. An excellent contribution.”

THE TRUSTED EXECUTIVE FOUNDATION

Speaker: John Blakey

Founder – The Trusted Executive Foundation
 CEO Executive Coach and author

Keynote Overview:

The Trusted Executive Foundation is committed to helping organisations and CEOs achieve their goals by relying upon the power of trust rather than trusting in power. Based on the 'The Trusted Executive' written by John Blakey, which was shortlisted as the Chartered Management Institute book of the year in 2016. Which also led to John being named as a top 100 thought leader in trust by Trust Across America. John's prize-winning research on trust at Aston Business School has been featured in Forbes, Inc. Magazine, The Huffington Post and on the BBC's 'Daily Politics' programme.

John's keynote speaker sessions draw upon his experience as a former FTSE100 international managing director, highly successful entrepreneur and executive coach to over 120 CEOs from 22 different countries, as well to Team GB and England sports coaches in rowing, diving, shooting and cricket.

Duration: 30-90 mins depending upon client needs

This keynote will challenge participants to build a high trust culture in their business - one that delivers outstanding results, inspiring relationships and a positive brand reputation.

Approach:

John will present a proven three-pillared approach to trustworthy leadership, based on ability, integrity and benevolence. These pillars are underpinned by nine habits of trustworthiness that, when consistently put into action, will transform your leadership style.
